MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

Office of the Chief Inspector of Mines

NOTIFICATION

Dhanbad, the 8th March 1960

No. Board/3950/60—In accordance with the provision laid down in Regulation 13(5) of the Coal Mines Regulations, 1957, the following bye-laws made under Regulation 13(4) for the conduct of examinations for, and grant of, Gas-testing certificate of Competency are published:—

BYE-LAWS FOR CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS FOR, AND GRANT OF, GAS-TESTING CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY.

1. Application to be supported by original certificate etc.—

No application shall be considered unless it is supported by an original certificate (from the manager of a mine or from the principal of a technical institute etc.) to the effect that in view of his knowledge of gas-testing etc., the candidate is a fit person to be admitted to an examination for the grant of a gas-testing certificate and original certificates of age, sound health and character and is accompanied by evidence that the prescribed fee has been paid.

2. Holding of Examinations—

Examinations shall be held at such times and such places as may be fixed by the Board and notified to the candidate. The examination fees of a candidate who fails to appear for an examination at the appointed place and time without sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Chief Inspector shall be forfeited.

3. (1) Appointment of Examiners—

So far as practicable, the examiners appointed by the Board for each examination shall be one manager or assistant manager, holding the First or Second Class Manager's Certificate and an Inspector of Mines who shall also act as the Secretary for the examination.

(2) Except in an emergency, no member of the Board shall act as an examiner.

4. (1) Type of Examination—

The examination shall be conducted orally in Hindi or in the language of the district in which examination is held.

(2) Candidates shall be examined in the following subjects—

- Construction and assembly of flame safety lamps;
- Effects of inflammable gas in different percentages, and the difference between combustion and explosion;
- Methods of testing for inflammable gas underground with a flame safety lamp;
- Provisions of the Coal Mines Regulations, made under the Mines Act, 1952, relating to safety lamps and to the presence of inflammable gas in a mine;
- Actual testing for inflammable gas with a flame safety lamp.

5. Conduct of the Examination—

Every candidate shall conduct himself as required by the Secretary of the Examination.

6. Identity of candidates etc.—

At the time of examination, every candidate shall hand over the authorisation issued to him for appearing in the examination and two unmounted photographs of himself (of a size approximately 5 cm. × 6.5 cm.) to the Secretary for the Examination who, after satisfying himself that each photograph is a likeness of the candidate, shall endorse each of them on the back with the name of the candidate.

7. (1) Successful candidates—

In order to qualify, a candidate must obtain not less than 40 per cent. of the maximum marks in each subject and not less than 60 per cent. of the total marks.

(2) The Secretary of the Examination shall record the left hand thumb impression of every successful candidate.

8. Unsuccessful candidates—

A candidate who has failed in an examination for a Gas-testing Certificate shall not be eligible for re-examination for a period of three months from the date of the examination, in which he failed.
